A "cookie" is a small data file (a data file exchanged between the server and the client) transferred by a website to your computer's hard drive. MOL Nyrt. or its service providers send cookies when you surf our site or sites where our ads appear, make purchases, request or personalize information, or register yourself for certain services.

MOL Nyrt. uses cookies to learn if you have ever visited our website and to identify those functions/services which can be in your interest. HTTP and Flash cookies can enhance the user experience by preserving your preferred information while staying on our page. Nor HTTP, neither Flash cookies are able to identify you as a person.

Cookies are typically classified as either "session" cookies or "persistent" cookies.

- Session cookies do not stay on your computer after you close your browser.
- Persistent cookies remain on your computer until you delete them or they expire. Most browsers automatically accept cookies by default, but you can usually refuse cookies or selectively accept cookies by adjusting the preferences in your browser. If you turn off cookies, there may be some features of our site that will not be available to you and some Web pages may not display properly

You can find information on popular browsers and how to adjust your cookie preferences in the help and support section of your browser.

MOL Nyrt. uses the following cookies

Analytics cookies

Whenever you visit a MOL Nyrt. website, web analytics software creates an anonymous cookie that tells us if you have visited the site before. This type of cookie helps us track how many people are visiting the site, where they are coming from, and what pages they are viewing. We use this data to see how pages are performing and to find ways to improve them. Analytics cookies are used only to gather statistical data and cannot be used to identify individuals.

Site performance cookies

Some cookies are used to remember your preferences for tools or features that you interact with on our site. For example, if you use our virtual card centre, we use a cookie to remember your log in details. These cookies do not collect any personal information.

Geo-targeting cookies

We use geo-targeting cookies to help display relevant content for your region. These cookies use information from your web browser to determine where you are visiting from.

Can I stop cookies from being set?

You can configure your web browser to prevent cookies from being accepted for all websites or just for certain websites. The links below explain how to change cookie settings for each of the main browsers. You can also find information in the Help menu for your browser.
